

Word Study:

- Last week's test was sent home. You may keep these at home.
- Study weekly words. We will have a quiz on Friday!

A large graphic of a spiral notebook with a black and white spiral binding. The notebook page is white and contains the text "Weekly Words:" followed by a grid of words. To the right of the notebook is a cartoon girl wearing a red and white striped hat, a pink dress, and a purple shirt with "DRE" and "HELLO" written on it.

Weekly Words:
teacher	would	without	unfriendly
hundred	musician	airplane
impatient	richest	thousand

Reading Comprehension - Senor Coyote, the Judge due Thursday.

Please ensure that responses are made in complete sentences. Here is an example of an appropriate response:

Q: What is your favourite subject in school?

A: My favourite subject in school is Math because I love to work with numbers.

Repeat the stem of the question

Use details to support your answer

Here are some reading strategies to help ensure that you understand what you are reading and that you choose the BEST possible answer choice:

1. Read all of the questions first.
2. Read the passage, highlighting or underlining any important facts or details as you go.
3. Reread the questions (not the answer choices- YET!).
4. Look to the passage for details that support your answer. PROVE that you are correct.
5. Read the possible answer choices - rule out which ones it cannot be, then consider carefully the specific details of the remaining choices.
6. Always select the BEST choice available.

$$+ - \times \div + - \times \div + - \times \div + - \times \div + - \times \div$$

Math - Build that number and comparing and ordering numbers exercises. DUE Thursday.

- Basic fact drills will be coming home today (Monday). Please initial on your student's bar graph that you have seen their quizzes. The quizzes do not need to be returned.
- Students should choose 2 facts from their quizzes to focus on mastering this week.
